

G. A. CARROLL ON GOOD ROADS

G. A. Carroll, who was in town today from his home at Steep Hollow, informed an Eagle reporter that measles were prevalent in that community.

Mr. Carroll was questioned as to his views on the road question, and stated he was opposed to a bond issue. The sum would be soon spent, he believed, and while the money would be gone, the debt would remain, and in a few years the roads would be worn out. He favored a special personal tax and thinks by annually expending this road tax and working continually on the roads they can be kept in better shape than if a large initial amount were expended.

Washington, March 7.—President Wilson's present purpose is to recommend that the tariff alone be acted on at the forthcoming extra session of Congress.

JOHN CURRIE DEAD

John Currie died in San Antonio last night and was buried in this city this afternoon, the funeral taking place from the train.

He was raised on the old Davenport place, now the Howell farm, two miles northeast of Bryan. His father died and later his mother became Mrs. D. W. Davenport.

He married Miss Mazie Tucker, daughter of Mrs. L. H. Tucker of this city, and they made their home in Houston. Later they resided in Galveston, but returned to Houston, now their home.

He was a member of the Methodist Church, the Woodmen of the World and the Macabees. He is survived by his widow and two children, Felix and Monta.

Rev. Glenn Flinn conducted the funeral services, and he was laid to rest in the City Cemetery.

The many friends of the bereaved family deeply sympathize with them in their great sorrow.

SLUGGED NEGRO DEAD.

The negro found last Monday in a hut near Stone City has been identified as John Lawrence. He died late yesterday afternoon, having never regained consciousness. When the negro was found he was semi-conscious. A three-quarter inch bar of iron about sixteen inches long was lying on the floor, which was covered with blood. A smoked lamp was still burning, and nickels, dimes and a half dollar were scattered over the floor. There were no signs of cards or dice. Two negroes, Addie Gooden and Robert Davis, are held on suspicion.

BERRY JOHNSON ABLE TO BE OUT

Mr. Berry Johnson, who was severely injured about two weeks ago by his horse running into a barn with him, is able to be out again with the assistance of a walking cane, and his many friends and acquaintances are delighted to see him, and hope that it will be only a matter of a few days until he will be as well as ever.

DEATH OF MRS. CHRISTINE HANUS

End Came at Marlin Where She Was Taken Recently for the Benefit of Her Death.

Mrs. Christine Hanus died in Marlin yesterday. She recently went to Marlin for the benefit of her health, but to no avail. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oprstny, were apprised by wire that her condition was serious, and went to her bedside Sunday. Her husband and other relatives were also with her.

She was aged 23 years, 7 months and three days. She was the wife of Mr. Frank Hanus. She was a noble Christian mother, and a type of woman that is the salvation of humanity. She was buried this afternoon at 4:30, the funeral taking place from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oprstny. Services were held at St. Joseph's Church, and she was laid to rest in the City Cemetery, Rev. Father Gleissner conducting the rites.

The Ursuline Sisters of Villa Maria tender their heartfelt thanks to the dear friends who so thoughtfully and kindly assisted them in their recent bereavement.

J. A. STEWART ON GOOD ROADS

J. A. Stewart of Benchley was in the city today and reported the people in that neighborhood very busy. Dunn & Newton have about completed their new quarters.

In reference to the roads, Mr. Stewart said that they were rough at present, but were being dragged continually, and would soon improve.

He said that he hoped to see something done to better them, and would heartily support a bond issue for good roads.

Mr. Stewart said that it was his opinion that until the county could afford to put in gravel or shell highways, the dirt roads should be put in shape. At present our dirt roads are not on an average of 20 per cent as efficient as they could easily be made. If the plain dirt roads, such as now are in this county, were properly graded, rolled and then dragged regularly, the situation would be tremendously relieved.

Pike roads are fine, but until we get them we had better fix what we have already and make them as good as possible.
